DEFINITIONS

As used in this chapter, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated:

AUCTIONEER:

A person who sells real property or personal property of other persons at auctions which are open to the public.

NON-PROFIT-MAKING VENDOR:

A person who sells goods, the proceeds of which are devoted exclusively to the purposes of a philanthropic, charitable or religious society on whose behalf he acts as agent with or without pay, but excluding those individuals or organizations soliciting for funds or other thing or value for which no merchandise, wares or services are given in return.

PEDDLER:

A person, commonly referred to either as a "transient merchant," "itinerant vendor," "route salesman," "peddler," "hawker" or other such person who goes from place to place by traveling on the streets or from house to house and carries with him foodstuffs, goods, wares and merchandise for the purpose of selling and delivering them to consumers or who, without carrying merchandise, sells or proposes to sell services of any kind, including but not limited to painting, landscaping, subscriptions and photography.

SOLICITOR:

A person selling the above-described articles or services by sample or taking orders for future delivery, with or without accepting an advance payment for the goods and regardless of whether the solicitation is made by telephone or personal contact; the provisions of this chapter shall apply to the person who comes in contact with the buyer through the delivery of the goods or the acceptance of any monies in payment thereof.
